

Alpine Renewables Code of Conducts Year 2023

Journey to sustainability

MESSAGE FROM THE CEO

Welcome to our Code of Conduct. It is prepared for everyone to guide us on our daily decision-making process and remain true to our core values and business principles. We adhere to rules and ethics; and compliance is considered to be everyone's responsibility.

This Code of Conduct is in accordance to the UN Global Compact's ten principles and supports our vision of being the top 3 supplier of sustainable energy raw and processed materials from Asia, adhering to strict sustainability guidelines for the betterment of both environmental and social conditions for our future generations.

We strive to improve every aspect of the business, making sure that this Code of Conduct are followed by us and our partners in daily operations and decision making. We take ownership and responsibility for our work to achieve our goal of building a more sustainable future.

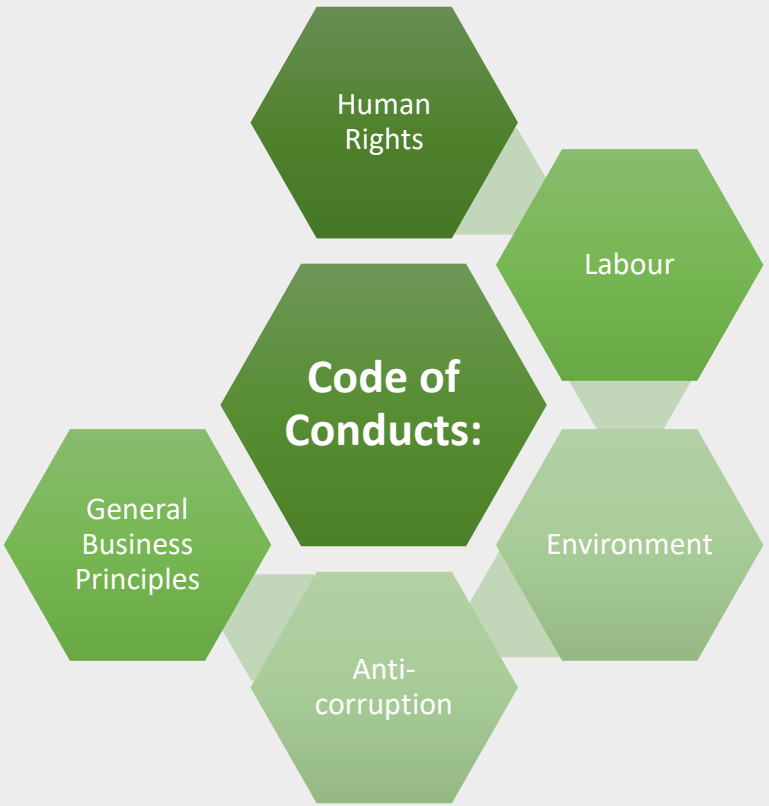

We thank you for your commitments towards our Code of Conducts.

Steven Chiang

4. Anti-Corruption

- We work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.

At Alpine, we build relationship based on our value of trust, and we are determined to maintain and enhance our reputation. For this reason, we never accept or pay bribes to advance our actions.

We act in the best interest of our company, and do not let our personal or related party interests to influence our decision making.

Gifts of moderate value and hospitality associated with our business operations are acceptable. Employees who receive or give cooperate gifts, are required to appropriately assess the values, grounds, and need for such gifts or representation. We hold the basic principle of making decisions on commercial grounds, respecting the laws of the countries where we operate.

5. General Business Principles

1. We comply with relevant laws and standards, and we expect the same measures from our partners.

• We act in compliance with all relevant laws and regulations in the context of each operation and country of operation. Everyone willing to conduct business with us, regardless of the country they operate in, shall respect the same legal principles. These are considered as the minimum standards, and we strive to go above and beyond whenever possible. We therefore choose to follow voluntary principles as outlined in our company policies, which our partners are also expected to respect.

2. We do not participate in political nor religious activity as a company.

• We actively engage in societal discussions but do not offer financial support to political parties and entities associated with them or make any direct or indirect political or religious contributions.

3. We promote good corporate governance.

• We avoid conflicts of interest between the company and any individual. Employees safeguard company assets and use them in the best possible way towards the attainment of company goals. We discourage employees from holding management positions in commercial corporations outside the company and shall prohibit any company employee from accepting such a position if that would create a conflict of interest with the employee's job duties in the company. We hold to the basic principle of employees complying with valid local legislation on competition restriction.

4. We commit to operating openly and transparently.

• We communicate our operations and discoveries transparently and openly. We choose to discuss the cases of non-compliance. We encourage our stakeholders to ask questions, make proposals as well as actively bring up non-compliances.

5. We react to non-compliance

• Our stakeholders shall react immediately if they observe any action contravening this Code of Conduct or legislation. Immediate notifications of non-compliances enable management to take corrective actions and remediating the impact of non-compliances. All notifications of non-compliances should be made in good faith.

Business Principles

Do not hesitate to seek guidance. If you are not sure about an action or a decision, ask yourself:

- Is it legal?
- Am I comfortable with this?
- Does it harm our employees, brand or other stakeholders?
- Does it do harm to the environment and society?
